AUTHOR INDEX
Community Education Journal
VOLUME XVI (OCTOBER 1988 through JULY 1989)

Alexander, George M.
Case corner: two responses. XVI, 1 (October 1988).

Bryant, Linda R.M.
Community education and the Native American community: interviews with Jackye Colburn and Billie Adcock. XVI, 4 (Summer 1989).
Today's communities: getting to know you. XVI, 4 (Summer 1989).
Hispanic parents as agents of dropout prevention: an interview with Elena Pell. XVI, 4 (Summer 1989).
Public Schools and Early Childhood Education: The Bank Street Study (book review). XVI, 2 (Winter 1989).

Cauble, Mary
Case corner: two responses. XVI, 1 (October 1988).

Cirone, William J.
Minorities in the teaching ranks. XVI, 4 (Summer 1989).
Partnerships: the community education process in action. XVI, 2 (Winter 1989).

Delgado-Gaitan, Concha
A parent education model for language-minority families. XVI, 1 (October 1988).

Denton, William H.
The next educational reform: family support systems. XVI, 2 (Winter 1989).

Falkenberg, Eugene
Community schools—the Alberta way. XVI, 1 (October 1988).

Friedenberg, Joan E.
Limited-English students: a model for dropout prevention. XVI, 4 (Summer 1989).

Gonzalez, Berta
A parent education model for language-minority families. XVI, 1 (October 1988).

Green, James E.
A community service program for tomorrow's teachers. XVI, 1 (October 1988).

Harris, J. John III
Colleges of education and the local public schools: perspectives of a dean. XVI, 2 (Winter 1989).
Parent involvement: a link between schools and minority communities. XVI, 4 (Summer 1989).

Heid, Camilla
Parent involvement: a link between schools and minority communities. XVI, 4 (Summer 1989).

Heifetz, Jeanne
"The most important thing we do"—community educators talk about family support and education programs. XVI, 3 (Spring 1989).

Hodgkinson, Harold
The right schools for the right kids. XVI, 4 (Summer 1989).

Jackson, Gaylon
Community service: a path to youth leadership. XVI, 4 (Summer 1989).

Jackson, Mel
Minority leadership in NCEA: perceptions of a member. XVI, 4 (Summer 1989).

Jende, Patrice
Supporting people with disabilities in the community: a report from Australia. XVI, 2 (Winter 1989).

Jones, Linda K.
Community schools—the Alberta way. XVI, 1 (October 1988).

Kielsmeier, James C.
Service: meeting youth's need to be needed. XVI, 1 (October 1988).

Krals, Susan
Harried director, hostile reporter, hotheaded strikers, and a bureaucratic maze—can this program be saved? XVI, 3 (Spring 1989).

Kussrow, Paul
How community education got started in North Carolina. XVI, 3 (Spring 1989).
How much community is in our community education? XVI, 1 (October 1988).

Larson, James R.
Assessing youth programs: a guide to community self-appraisal. XVI, 1 (October 1988).

Leary, James L.
School-community partnerships: 10 good ways for schools to reach out to their communities. XVI, 2 (Winter 1989).

Lipscomb, Robert
Community service: a path to youth leadership. XVI, 4 (Summer 1989).

Lowe, Jerry M.
"Ms. Neal needs a new pr program." XVI, 3 (Spring 1989).

Mason, Bob
How much community is in our community education? XVI, 1 (October 1988).

Mathews, Bernadette
The adult children of alcoholics: support groups and noncredit classes are helping. XVI, 2 (Winter 1989).

Nance, Everette E.
The leadership dilemma in the black community. XVI, 4 (Summer 1989).

Nelson, Ken G.
Minnesota's youth development initiative: building on strengths. XVI, 1 (October 1988).

Oberg, Terry J.
The case of the aging program. XVI, 1 (October 1988).

Pendell, Richard C.
A visit to a Soviet day care center. XVI, 2 (Winter 1989).

Powell, James W.
The road to chaos is often paved with good intentions. XVI, 2 (Winter 1989).

Quality Education for Minorities Project.
A comprehensive approach. XVI, 4 (Summer 1989).

Reed, Horace B.
Ethical Issues in Adult Education by Ralph G. Brockett, ed. (book review). XVI, 1 (October 1988).

Rehwald, Mary
A big project for a small town. XVI, 3 (Spring 1989).

Santellanes, David
Leadership in the Hispanic community: the importance of context. XVI, 4 (Summer 1989).

Seppanen, Patricia
"The most important thing we do"—community educators talk about family support and education programs. XVI, 3 (Spring 1989).

Shaw, W. Preston
How to get out of this mess. XVI, 2 (Winter 1989).

Shelton, Maria M.
How to get out of this mess. XVI, 2 (Winter 1989).

Shoop, Robert J.
Gang emblems and dress codes: drawing the lines. XVI, 3 (Spring 1989).
The need for an educational risk-management plan. XVI, 1 (October 1988).

Shuttleworth, Dale E.
Hands-on, concrete learning: why it's needed now. XVI, 3 (Spring 1989).

Stark, Stephen L.
"She should get behind her director." XVI, 3 (Spring 1989).

Weaver, Roy A.
A community service program for tomorrow's teachers. XVI, 1 (October 1988).

Willits, Rich
Service: meeting youth's need to be needed. XVI, 1 (October 1988).

Wilson, Anne L.
An intergenerational program in Arizona is meeting a lot of needs. XVI, 3 (Spring 1989).